The foundation for the study and practice of property law

New Edition
Principles of Property Law, Seventh Edition
Bruce H. Ziff
Long renowned as a classic, Principles of Property Law offers a concise introduction to the fundamentals of Canadian property law. This new edition has been thoroughly updated and revised to reflect the diverse and changing face of property law.

Principles of Property Law, Seventh Edition is a practical resource that covers all the fundamentals of property law. You’ll find clear explanations of the meaning of property, the justifications for private entitlements, and the history and social importance of the idea of property.

Additionally, you’ll get thorough coverage of related topics such as boundaries, possessions, estates, Aboriginal rights, equitable interests, leases, licences, bailment, shared property rights, servitudes, security interests, and land registration.

Experience the benefits

- Get access to authoritative insight from a leading property law expert
- Find what you need faster with logically organized content and an accessible writing style

New in this edition

- All twelve chapters updated to reflect legislative, jurisprudential, and policy developments since the last edition
- Primary and secondary materials spanning a broad range of common law jurisdictions
- There is expanded commentary on:
  - The argument in favour of private property involving human flourishing on a societal level
  - Accretion in the context of lateral boundaries
  - The rules of recognition of Aboriginal lands
  - Conventional forms of constructive trusts
  - Public policy and state-imposed restraints on the right to alienate
  - The limits placed on tenants regarding assignments and subleases
  - The proprietary status of licences
  - The running of burdens in equity
  - Covenants over personalty
  - Indefeasibility and its qualifications
About the Author

Bruce H. Ziff is a professor of law at the University of Alberta, where he teaches and writes mainly in the area of property law. Professor Ziff has been a Visiting Professor at Osgoode Hall Law School and at the University of Wollongong, NSW, Australia. He has served as Special Counsel for the Alberta Law Reform Institute and as a legal advisor on land titles reform in Ukraine. He is a co-editor of A Property Law Reader: Cases, Questions, and Commentary, Fourth Edition, also published by Thomson Reuters.
Table of Contents

1. The Nature of Property
2. Property in Perspective
3. Boundaries
4. Possession
5. Estates and Aboriginal Land Rights
6. Equitable Interests
7. Qualified Dispositions
8. Leases, Licences, and Bailments
9. Shared Ownership
10. Servitudes over Property
11. Mortgages and Other Security Interests
12. Priorities and Registration

Visit store.thomsonreuters.ca/ziff for a complete Table of Contents