How to search the newsletter archive in FamilySource

Welcome to this tutorial on how to search the newsletter archive in FamilySource.

To search Epstein's This Week in Family Law newsletter, select its link from either the Current Awareness or the Articles and Newsletters section. Links to the most recent 10 issues appear. To search the entire archive, enter your search terms into the search box at the top of the page and then select Search.

The results list appears in relevancy order; however, you can change it to chronological order to see the most recent newsletters first. Use the filters on the left side to narrow down your list. To retrieve a newsletter, select its link... and to see where your terms appear in the document, select the Next Term arrow. This ends your tutorial on how to search the newsletter archive in FamilySource.
