Business Corporations in Canada - Legal and Practical Aspects

Authored by Paul Martel, one of Canada's leading corporate law experts, Business Corporations in Canada — Legal and Practical Aspects offers a comprehensive yet pragmatic analysis of the legal principles involved in all aspects of corporate law, as well as the judicial interpretation and application of these principles. With thorough references to case law and statutes from both Quebec and Ontario, this unique publication not only imparts an excellent understanding of Quebec corporate law, it also provides in-depth information on business corporations in other Canadian jurisdiction and a comparative view of U.S. principles.
