THE LAW OF DISMISSAL IN CANADA,
THIRD EDITION
Howard A. Levitt
Release No. 71, February 2019

With extensive treatment of case law, The Law of Dismissal in Canada is renowned for its current and practical guidance covering every relevant rule, topic and strategy essential to building and defending dismissal cases. This publication offers easy access to the latest legislation and case law governing this area of law. It summarizes and condenses Canadian dismissal law in a way that allows legal practitioners to get a strong analytical overview of each topic quickly and easily. As well, this work contains extensive charts setting out reasonable notice awards from across the country.

What's New in this Update:

This release includes updates to case law and commentary in Chapter 15, as well as updates to the Table of Cases. New and updated cases include:

- Legal Issues Arising During The Litigation Process — Costs Awarded — Dussault v. Imperial Oil Limited (2018), 49 C.C.E.L. (4th) 70 (Ont. S.C.J.) — “plaintiffs calculated partial indemnity costs as 66% of their full indemnity costs. Recent case law from the Court of Appeal supports [the defendant’s] submission that partial indemnity costs are generally in the range of 55% to 60% of full indemnity costs” — plaintiffs’ costs reduced to $75,000;
