

The Canadian Abridgment BULLETIN

December 2022 — Issue 67

Highlighting new developments and providing research tips for users of the Canadian Abridgment

Highlights:

FROM THE PUBLISHER

In this issue of the Bulletin, we tell you about the 2023 publishing program for The Canadian Abridgment products. As usual at this time of year, we provide you with planned reissues, the anticipated publishing schedule and an estimate of the prices of our Abridgment products in the upcoming year. We will advise you of any changes in our plans as far as possible in advance during 2023.

I welcome any comments or suggestions that you have concerning The Canadian Abridgment.

In the coming year, we plan consolidations for the following titles of the Case Law Digests component of the Abridgment:

- Bankruptcy and Insolvency
- Contracts

This reissue of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency and Contracts titles provides an opportunity to significantly update and modernize these titles, taking into account developments within each field since their last consolidations in 2009.

Effective September 3, 2019, we have simplified our invoice and your product price now includes standard shipping (previously shown as separate amounts). Accordingly, the estimated upkeep costs of our Abridgment products include standard shipping.

While we endeavour to provide you with the most accurate prices and publishing dates, it is not possible at this time to state with absolute certainty the number of volumes, month of publication, and price. All prices are estimates and may change. An outline of the 2023 program as it is currently planned follows, and we will keep you informed of any changes as the year unfolds.

Please note that the 2023 program does not include the Canadian Case Citations or the Monthly Updating Services (Canadian Current Law - Canadian Legal Literature and Canadian Current Law - Legislation) as these print components were discontinued in 2022. However, this valuable content continues to be made available to customers on Westlaw Canada and Westlaw Edge Canada.
