

The Canadian Abridgment BULLETIN

December 2023 — Issue 68

Highlighting new developments and providing research tips for users of the Canadian Abridgment

Highlights:

FROM THE PUBLISHER

In this issue of the Bulletin, we tell you about the 2024 publishing program for The Canadian Abridgment print products. As usual at this time of year, we provide you the anticipated publishing schedule and an estimate of the prices of our Abridgment products in the upcoming year. We will advise you of any changes in our plans as far as possible in advance during 2024.

I welcome any comments or suggestions that you have concerning The Canadian Abridgment.

Jilean Bell, B.A. (Hons.), LL.B.

Please note that the 2024 program does not include the Canadian Abridgment Case Law Digests components or the Consolidated Table of Cases as these print components were discontinued in 2023. However, this valuable content continues to be made available to customers on Westlaw Canada and Westlaw Edge Canada.

In the coming year, we plan reconsolidations for the following titles of the Canadian Abridgment Digests on Westlaw Canada and Westlaw Edge Canada:

- Business associations
- Constitutional law
- Environmental law

The reissue of the above titles provides an opportunity to significantly update and modernize these titles, taking into account developments within each field since their last reconsolidations in 2010, 2008 and 2011 respectively.

Effective September 3, 2019, we have simplified our invoice and your product price now includes standard shipping (previously shown as separate amounts). Accordingly, the estimated upkeep costs of our Abridgment products includes standard shipping.

While we endeavour to provide you with the most accurate prices and publishing dates, it is not possible at this time to state with absolute certainty the number of volumes, month of publication, and price. All prices are estimates and may change. An outline of the 2024 program as it is currently planned follows, and we will keep you informed of any changes as the year unfolds.
