

2008 Canadian Abridgment Publishing Program and Estimated Upkeep Costs

Our publishing plans for The Canadian Abridgment components in 2008 are set out over the next few pages. This article includes a description of the publications, the publication pattern, a chart of the anticipated dates of publication, and costs.

Highlights:

Case Law Digests -- Reissues: In December of the coming year we will be sending the final volumes in our five-year project to complete the first new edition of The Canadian Abridgment since the 1970s. All Third Edition volumes this year will deal with Criminal Law. Going forward we will resume our practice of periodically reissuing Abridgment titles, when the supplements grow too large, or when the classification is in need of substantial overhaul to meet current research needs. In 2008 we will be reissuing four titles: Aboriginal Law, Administrative Law, Constitutional Law, and Civil Procedure.

Canadian Case Citations – Reconsolidation Continues: We are continuing the reconsolidation of Canadian Case Citations. In September 2007, we issued the first ten (of thirty hardcover volumes of the Reconsolidation. In September 2008, we will send the next ten volumes. The final ten volumes will be published in September 2009.

Consolidated Table of Cases: A long overdue reconsolidation of this component (the supplements are now larger than the main work) was postponed while we were in transition from the Second to the Third Edition. Following on the completion of the Third Edition main work volumes, we are taking the opportunity to produce a reconsolidation of the Consolidated Table of Cases. Reflecting the organization of the Third edition, the 14 main volumes of the reconsolidation will reflect the cases digested in the main volumes of the Third Edition; the 14 supplements will reflect the cases digested in the latest CLD supplement.

While we endeavour to provide you with the most accurate prices and publishing dates, it is impossible at this time to state with absolute certainty the number of volumes, month of publication, and price. All prices are estimates and may change. We can, however, provide you with an outline of the 2008 program as it is currently planned, and we will keep you informed of any variation as the year unfolds.
