

The Canadian Abridgment BULLETIN

December 2017 — Issue 62

Highlighting new developments and providing research tips for users of the Canadian Abridgment

FROM THE PUBLISHER

In this issue of the Bulletin, we tell you about the 2018 publishing program for The Canadian Abridgment products. As usual at this time of year, we provide you with planned reissues, the anticipated publishing schedule and an estimate of the prices of our Abridgment products in the upcoming year. Additionally, we highlight changes to our traditional print publication schedule. We will advise you of any changes in our plans as far as possible in advance during 2018.

I welcome any comments or suggestions that you have concerning The Canadian Abridgment.

Highlights:

In accordance with customer feedback, and to better reflect current research trends as researchers increasingly turn to online sources and away from print to maintain currency, certain print currency products will be discontinued in 2018. Specific information regarding these changes is noted below, under the appropriate product. Explanatory letters will accompany each product's final release.

The only major reconsolidation planned for 2018 will be for the Case Law Digests component of the Abridgment. We plan to reissue the following titles:

September Release (15 volumes)

- Aboriginal law
- Administrative law
- Evidence
- Health law

December Release (11 volumes)

- Religious institutions
- Remedies
- Restitution and unjust enrichment
- Securities
- Statutes

While we endeavour to provide you with the most accurate prices and publishing dates, it is not possible at this time to state with absolute certainty the number of volumes, month of publication, and price. All prices are estimates and may change. An outline of the 2018 program as it is currently planned follows, and we will keep you informed of any changes as the year unfolds.
