

Practical Law Canada – Summary Chart for Terms of Use

Practical Law Canada Services	Who this applies to		Permitted Use	Non-Permitted Use	Document
Pre-subscription trials - there are 2 types 1) instant; 2) managed – see below. Permitted and Non-permitted uses set out in columns to the right apply to both			Search and view the applicable Trial Services during the Trial Period solely for the purpose of evaluating whether to subscribe to the Subscription Services. In consideration of a Trial Offer, Trial Users shall provide feedback to Practical Law concerning the Trial Services, upon Practical Law's reasonable request during or after the Trial Period.	Reproduce, download, store, transmit or modify any Practical Law Materials from the Trial Services in any printed or electronic form.	Terms of Use
Instant	Instant "Trial users"	Complimentary and time-limited (24 hours)	See Pre-Subscription Trials	See Pre-Subscription Trials	Terms of Use
Managed	Managed "Trial users"	Complimentary and time-limited (usually 7 to 14 days) at PL's sole discretion	See Pre-Subscription Trials	See Pre-Subscription Trials	Terms of Use
Subscription Services	"Authorized Users" of paid Subscriber	Paid	Practical Law Services can be used solely in connection with the Subscriber's provision of their legal services to clients or within their own practice, business or educational activities, to i. search, view, reproduce, download and store, in printed or electronic form, Practical Law Materials from the Subscribed Services; ii. quote, customize and incorporate such Practical Law Materials, in whole or part, in documents, memoranda, articles and other work product prepared by Authorized Users on the Subscriber's behalf in connection with client matters, business or educational activities or for the Subscriber's internal use ("Subscriber Materials"); and iii. provide, transmit or distribute such Practical Law Materials to others	Use the applicable Subscribed Services, solely in connection with the Subscriber's provision of its legal services to clients or within its own practice, business or educational activities, and in a manner that is not commercially prejudicial to Practical Law	Subscription Agreement + Terms of Use
Introductory Services (e.g. freely accessible content on site etc)	All users	Paid and complimentary	Can be used solely in connection with the User's provision of their legal services to clients or within their own practice, business or educational activities, to: Search, view, reproduce, download and store, in printed or electronic form, contents and materials from the Introductory Services solely for the User's own use	Provide, transmit or distribute printed or electronic copies of any Practical Law Materials to any other person; or modify any such Practical Law Materials. (unless otherwise specified in Terms of Use)	Terms of Use