Droit de la vente, 4^e édition

Denys-Claude Lamontagne

L89730-494
$105

Voici enfin une nouvelle édition de ce volume consacré exclusivement à la vente. Il souligne l'importance de ce contrat nommé dans notre droit – le plus pratiqué, le plus usuel – et la diversité des régimes sous-jacents. Mais, par-delà cette complexité, les principes directeurs classiques régissent les rapports contractuels.

L'auteur aborde notamment les contrats préparatoires à la vente (promesses unilatérale ou bilatérale de vente, etc.), le contrat de vente comme tel (formation, transfert de propriété, obligations des contractants, contrats apparentés à la vente) et les ventes particulières (vente d'immeubles à usage d'habitation, etc.).

En plus de la mise à jour de la législation et de la jurisprudence, cette nouvelle édition comporte un chapitre complémentaire sur la nature et l'exécution du mandat, les changements proposés aux termes du Projet de loi 16, déposé récemment, et un commentaire en annexe sur l'arrêt Ostiguy.

Le public en droit privé

Yaëll Emerich, Centre Paul-André Crépeau de droit privé et compare, Laurence Saint-Pierre Harvey

L89730-523
$50

Cet ouvrage collectif tente de cerner les liens entre le public et le privé à travers une diversité d'angles et d'approches. Quels sont les fondements de la distinction, voire de l'opposition entre le droit privé et le droit public ? Quelles influences le droit privé exerce-t-il sur le droit public et inversement ? Comment le droit, public ou privé, agit-il sur des enjeux conçus comme relevant de la sphère opposée ? L'opposition entre le public et le privé a-t-elle encore un sens ? Academics from Quebec, France, Israel and the United Kingdom, specializing in legal theory, private international law, contract law, tax law, family law and civil liability law, cross-reference various discourses in an attempt to identify and expand on contemporary legal issues wherein the public and private spheres intertwine. Sont ainsi notamment interrogés la place de la doctrine dans cette construction binaire, les effets d'exclusion auxquels peut conduire l'effondrement de la distinction, les fondements théoriques de la raison publique du droit des contrats, la quête de la liberté face à l'ordre public, ou encore, la fonction canalisatrice du droit de la famille comme manifestation du public en droit privé.

Editor-in-Chief: Brian Samuels (Samuels & Co.), Bernard Quinn (Norton Rose Fulbright Canada),
D. Geoffrey Machum, Q.C. (Stewart McKelvey)

The Canadian College of Construction Lawyers, established in 1998, is comprised of lawyers from across Canada distinguished in the practice of construction law. While construction law is recognized as a specialized practice area, it in fact overlaps several other subject areas, some of which are, in themselves, distinct practice areas, such as contract law, tort law, surety law, builders' liens, and insurance law. One of the core values of the College is to maintain professional excellence in the study and practice of construction law. For that reason, this Journal is dedicated to publishing scholarly articles of interest to construction lawyers. The Journal is also of use and interest to other construction professionals and academics with an interest in construction law.

Loi sur le droit d'auteur, texte annoté, 11^e édition

Normand Tamaro

L7798-8382
$140

Cet ouvrage est devenu un classique dans la pratique du droit d'auteur au Canada depuis la publication de la première édition en 1990. Il combine le texte de la Loi et une analyse approfondie de la jurisprudence, ce qui en fait l'outil de recherche idéal pour le praticien dans ce domaine. Depuis la 10^e édition de cet ouvrage, en 2015, la Loi sur le droit d'auteur a de nouveau été modifiée, notamment en lien avec les tarifs des sociétés de gestion,

Cette nouvelle édition apporte elle aussi de nouveaux arrêts de la Cour suprême, par exemple avec la notion de copie accessoire, alors que le droit d'auteur est dorénavant sollicité dans toutes les sphères de l'activité humaine, ce qu'illustrent de nouveaux arrêts rapportés dans le présent ouvrage portant sur des données sismiques et informatiques, des logiciels, des moteurs de recherche, des métabalisés (metatags), des dictionnaires électroniques, des jeux vidéo, des poutrelles de bâtiments, des questions d'examen du domaine de la construction, des compilations législatives, des logos, des photographies, des enregistrements sonores, un documentaire, la communication d'émissions de télévision, les droits d'auteur de la Couronne, le consentement implicite, la révocation et l'interprétation d'une cession ou, encore, l'interprétation des exceptions prévues à la loi pour donner quelques exemples. Les textes législatifs et réglementaires de l'ouvrage sont à jour au 1^{er} avril 2019 (incluant les modifications apportées à la Loi sur le droit d'auteur par la Loi no 2 d'exécution du budget de 2018, L.C. 2018, c. 27).
